“Maysa, dua, tallo!”

“Aglemmengan Millio!”

“Madamdama, sika met ti agala!”

“Umayakon!”

“Agh!”

“Annay! Nanangko!”

“Apay? Ania ti napasamak?”
dinamag ni Nana Rita.
“Kinagatnak ti aso Nanang!”
insungbat ni Enteng nga agsangsangit.

“Umaykan! Agawaam...”
“Ta mapanta ipakita idiyay
health center.”

Health Center

“Siasinoda nanang?”

“Ania aramidenda kaniak?”

“Diak kayat ti sumrek dita!”

“Alla! Adda pay pagtudokda!”
“Nasakit dayta!”
“Mabutengak!”

“Kasla kagat laeng
ti kuton daytoy,” kinuna met iti doktor.

“Saan, umaykan
ta kumpetka kaniak,” inyawis ti nars.

“Agkidemka,”
kuna met ni Nana Rita.

“Nalpasen,” kuna iti doktor.
“Agmulagatkan,” kuna met ni Nana Rita.

“Ha? Nalpasen?”

“Saan met unay gayam a nasakit.”

“Nagsisingpetda pay.”

“Agyamankami doktor,” nakaisem nga imbaga
ni Nana Rita.

“Yey, agawidkamin!”
indir-i ni Enteng.

Apay a Madandanagan ni Enteng?

Enteng is accidentally bitten by a dog and is rushed to the health center by his mom. At first, he was afraid of the doctors, the nurses and, most of all, the sharp needle of the syringe. While being treated, Enteng discovers that the doctors and nurses are friendly, and that having an injection does not hurt that much. He goes home with his mom braver than ever.
