Damgo ni Mat

Mat is a healthy boy who just loves to lie down all day. One day, his mother asks him to help her fetch some water. Mat pretends that his hands and feet are in pain so he does not have to do what his mother asks. His mother becomes worried and asks him to go back to sleep. While sleeping, Mat dreams that a large snake is chasing him. He wants to climb a tree but he has no hands and feet. The snake is about to get him but Mat wakes up. He wakes up scared and crying and apologizes to his mother for lying. From then on, he always helps his mother do chores around the house.
