El dolor de Muela Real

Autor: Sanjiv Jaiswal 'Sanjay'

Ilustrator: Ajit Narayan

Traductor: Manisha Chaudhry

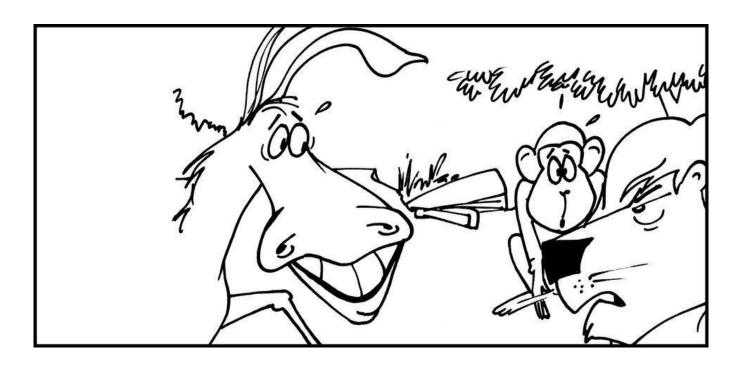

El león era el rey de la jungla. Todos se estremecían y temblaban cuando rugía.

El león tenía un dolor de muela terrible desde hace dos días.

[&]quot;Maharaj, haz que te extraigan ese diente", sugirió el mono, el médico de la selva.

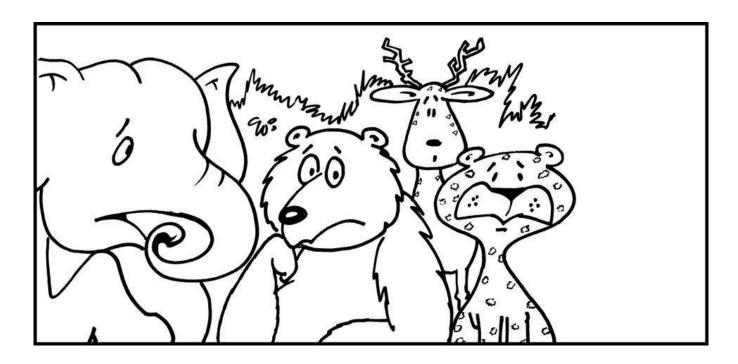

[&]quot;Está bien", acordó el león.

¿Quién le sacará el diente al león? iTodos le tenían miedo! "Maharaj, yo te daré una patada con mis patas traseras. Tu diente se caerá, dijo el tonto burro.

"¿Te atreverías a patear al rey?", rugió el león malhumorado. El burro metió la cola entre las patas y salió corriendo.

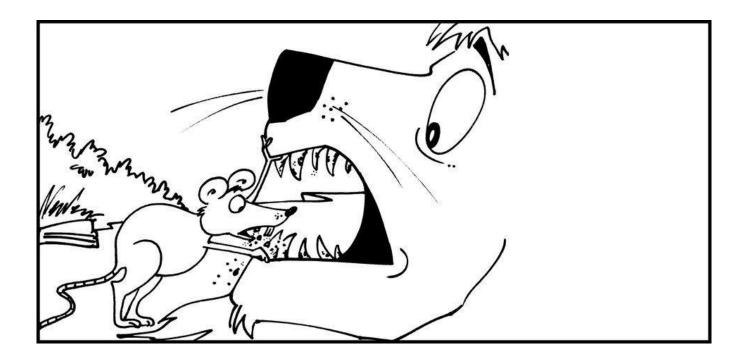

El elefante, el leopardo, el oso y el venado estaban preocupados. ¿Quién meterá su mano en la boca del león?

Dos días pasaron. El dolor de muela era insoportable.

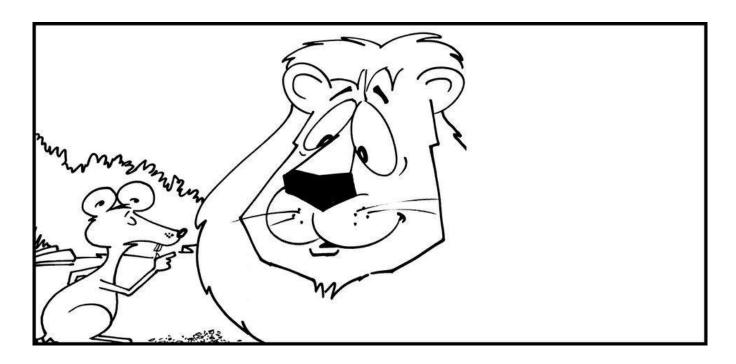

"¿Podría darle un vistazo?", preguntó el ratón una noche cuando el león y él estaban solos.

"Está bien," dijo el león y abrió ampliamente su boca.

iHay mucha suciedad atrapada entre tus dientes! " dijo el ratón echando un vistazo al interior.

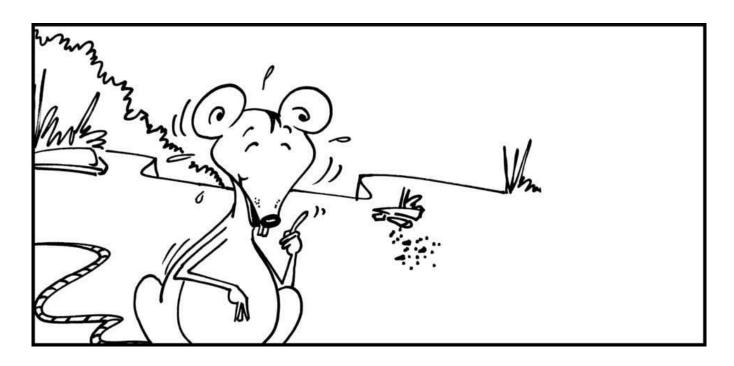

Con sus afilados dientes, limpió los dientes del león. El león se sintió mucho mejor.

"Maharaj, por favor limpia tus dientes a diario, o se podrirán", dijo el pequeño sabio ratón.

"Sí, tienes razón. Pero por favor, no le digas a nadie o pensarán que su rey no es limpio", suplicó el león.

"De acuerdo," se rió el ratón.

El león también se rió.
