1. The moon is a celestial body that orbits the Earth. It is the only natural satellite of our planet. The moon is visible from Earth because it reflects sunlight. The moon's surface is covered in craters, mountains, and a thin layer of soil. The moon's gravity affects the Earth's tides. The moon is a source of inspiration for many cultures and religions. The moon is a symbol of mystery and wonder. The moon is a beautiful sight in the night sky.

Figure 1. A woman in a red dress with a white floral pattern is reaching up towards a large, black, stylized owl. The background is a large, circular, textured shape in shades of blue and green, with several bright yellow light rays emanating from the top left corner. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-century modern art.
