

Dance, Mhlali!

The day of the concert is approaching, and Mhlali is getting more and more nervous. Will she ever be ready to dance in front of all those people?

It is almost time for the big concert at school. All the children are having fun practicing. But not Mihlali ...

She is worried she will forget her dance steps. "I'll help you practice at home." says Mom

At home Mhlali starts to practice and falls. "I wish this concert would never happen!" cried Mhlali.

“Not a chance!” says Mom. “The day of the concert is getting closer...”

“Granny has sent you a gift.”

Mihlali is too worried about the concert to open gifts.

But perhaps she should take a look inside. Mihlali opens her gift. “What great dancing shoes from Granny!”

Granny was the best dancer ever.

Mihlali practices and practices at school... And at home! And she dances in her dreams.

Mihlali must rest. The big concert is tomorrow.

It's concert day. Mihlali does her dance just right. What great fun! And surprise! Granny has even come to watch Mihlali dance.

"I danced just like you, Granny." "You were amazing!" exclaims Granny.
"You are the best dancer I've ever seen."
