Room to Read[®]

A Sweet Apple

Room to Read is a global nonprofit organization that provides books and literacy programs to children in low-income countries. We believe that every child should have access to books and the power of literacy. Our programs focus on providing books, training teachers, and promoting reading in schools and communities. We have a proven model for increasing literacy rates and improving the lives of children. We are currently looking for partners and donors to help us reach more children. If you are interested in supporting our mission, please contact us at info@roomtoread.org.
